Citizens Complain on Dcgs to Council

Resident of Lantwyn Lane
Keeps Six Which Are Nuisance, They Say.

HEARING FOR TONIGHT

A delegation of citizens of Lantwyn Lane, Narberth, appeared before the meeting of the Borough Council on Monday night to enter a complaint against a neighbor, Frederick Black, of 217 Lantwyn Lane, who keeps six dogs, which they say, are a nuisance to the neighborhood.

The gentlemen who appeared, Messrs. Fortenbacher, Pierson, Scott and Kennedy, stated that the dogs ran wild, polluting the lawns and destroying shrubbery and also created great annoyance due to barking late at night and early in the morning.

A hearing will be held on the matter tonight at 7:30 at Elm Hall by Burgess Henry A. Frye.

Tax Collector Edwin P. Dold reported that $4460.70 of 1930 taxes had been collected during August against the 1930 tax duplicate of $87,416.86.

Building permits issued during August by Building Inspector George B. Suplee are as follows: Gabriel Ettore, 325 Woodbine Avenue, alterations, $50; M. F. Haughty, 203 Forest Ave., alterations,

Reduced Book Prices Stretch Library's Funds

That it's an ill wind that blows nobody good is once more illustrated in the benefits conferred on the little Narberth Community Library by the efforts of certain publishers to get away from some of their troubles. Their profits, always averaging small per volume, having declined, they are trying the plan of seeking greater sales by lowering prices on certain books of fiction. Hence the much discussed "dollar books." Whatever it may prove to the publisher, this cut of 50-60 per cent. is a boon to libraries, whose book appropriation can thus be stretched somewhat. The list of dollar books includes many indispensables, such as H. G. Wells, J. S. Fletcher, Margaret Pedler, Edgar Wallace, Grace Richmond, Kathleen Norris, P. G. Wodehouse, a miscellaneous assortment. Whether the publishers' claim that the physical makeup is to be the same is reliable, time will tell.

Summer Attendance Good

Reports read at the September meeting of the Narberth Child Health Centre Committee showed a very successful summer session. Conferences were held every Wednesday afternoon at Elm Hall during June, July and August. The committee wishes to express its hearty appreciation and thanks to the volunteers who worked so willingly and capably during the extremely hot weather.

Directors to Meet

The board of directors of the Woman's Community Club of Narberth will meet with the president, Mrs. W. Russell Green, on Wednesday, September 17, at 10 A. M. at Elm Hall.

Main Line League Title For 2d Half Undecided

The Paoli baseball team, hailed as champions of the Main Line League for the second half of the season following its victory over Bryn Mawr on September 1, is not yet sure of the title, due to the forfeit of the Narberth-Dunkirk game on the first to Dunkirk because of the ineligibility of a Narberth player, and the necessity of re-playing the Paoli-Bryn Mawr game of last Sunday.

According to a rule adopted by the league officials two years ago no new players may be introduced into the lineup unless their names have been listed with the league officials ten days before the game in which they participate. A protest by Dunkirk against Charlie Townsend, of the Narberth team, was granted by Walter Hanley, of Paoli, president of the league.

To further complicate matters Paoli protested the result of last Sunday's game with Bryn Mawr, won by the latter team, 7-6, claiming a Bryn Mawr player was ineligible. Due to insufficient evidence the claim was not allowed but the result was thrown out and the two teams will meet again on Saturday.

If Paoli should lose on Saturday it will go into a tie with Dunkirk, while a victory will give the western nine undisputed title to the second half championship.

Main Line Colleges to Reopen This Month

The next two weeks will see the return of many youths and maidens to the section as four Main Line colleges reopen for the fall term.

Haverford will be the first, its opening date being next Thursday, December 18. Villanova will follow on Monday, the 22d, Rosemont on the 25th and Bryn Mawr on the 30th.

Three hundred and ten students, the largest enrollment in its history, are expected at Haverford for its ninety-eighth year. Christopher Morley, author, columnist and dramatist, will give a series of lectures at Haverford on English literature during the first half year. Professors who will be on sabbatical leave are Alfred J. Swann, lecturer on music, for the first half year, and William A. Reitzel and Albert H. Wilson during the second half year.

New faculty members at Haverford include Harry W. Pfund, assistant professor of German, a Haverford graduate, class of 1922; H. K. Henry, instructor in botany, and C. W. Holmes, instructor in English.

Dedication of New Narberth Methodist Church Planned For September 21st

Forum to Resume Its Meetings, Beginning 18th

The Forum will resume meetings for its second season at 8 o'clock on the evening of Thursday, September 18, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. Arley Farmer, at Woodbine and Cleveland Avenues. The Forum is a discussion-group which developed rather spontaneously last autumn following the series of "forum meetings" conducted by the Rev. Robert E. Keighton for four consecutive Sunday evenings in the Baptist Church of the Evangel. The Forum, as a distinct group, grew out of the desire of some people who had attended those meetings to continue a liberal discussion of the same subjects.

The Forum had no fixed membership, rules nor requirements for admission, except a sincere interest in the subjects which are discussed at each meeting under the leadership of Mr. Keighton. The meetings are held in private homes, but are always open to all who care to attend. It is not necessary to await a formal invitation, but additional information may be obtained by telephoning to Mr. Keighton or to any other member of the group.

Dr. Fosdick's book, "The Modern Use of the Bible," was first considered last year and later several meetings were devoted to a consideration of outstanding figures in the Old Testament. The Old Testament study was concluded at the final meeting last June and at that time it was unanimously decided that the theme of the next series of meetings should be the life of Jesus.

Cops and Bala-Cynwyd Open Title Series Tomorrow

The first game of the championship series between the Lower Merion-Narberth Police team and the Bala-Cynwyd Firemen will be played on the Narberth field on Saturday afternoon at 3 P. M. The cops won the first half season and Bala-Cynwyd the second half.

The probable line-up:

POLICE	BALA-CYNWYD
Broderick, 2b.	C. Thomas, ss.
Waters, cf.	Maxwell, 3b.
Brown, ss.	G. Tyson, 1f.
Valentine, c.	R. Thomas, c.

A cup for the first-half winner was presented by Fletcher W. Stites, of Narberth. Walter C. Neely, president of the Union Fire Company of Bala-Cynwyd, presented a cup for the second-half winner, and the Ardmore Chamber of Commerce has offered one for the victor of the playoff for the year's title.

Week of Special Services in New Building to Follow.

THE PUBLIC IS INVITED

Dedicatory exercises on Sunday, September 21, will mark the formal opening of the new Narberth Methodist Episcopal Church at Essex and Price Avenues. They will be followed by a week of special services, including a community service on the 22d and a banquet in the Parish Hall on the 25th.

Bishop Ernest G. Richardson will preach and dedicate the church at the Sunday evening service, September 22. The morning service will be held at 10:30 at which the Rev. Lucius H. Bugbee, D.D., of New York, will preach the opening sermon. For the past ten years Dr. Bugbee has been pastor of the Hennepin Avenue Methodist Episcopal Church, Minneapolis. A recent General Conference tried to make him a bishop but he refused to stand for election, preferring the pastorate of a great church. At 2:45 in the afternoon of the 21st, the Rev. Charles M. Boswell will preach. Music will be furnished by the Melody Trumpeters of Norristown.

Penalties Added to Taxes on Monday

Only three more days remain before penalties go into effect on County and State taxes, Borough Tax Collector Edwin P. Dold stated this week. He will be at the Narberth National Bank to receive taxes at the following times: Friday evening, September 12, from 7 to 9 o'clock; Saturday morning, September 13, from 8 o'clock to noon, and on Monday, September 15, from 8 A. M. to 3 P. M.

A five per cent. penalty is added to County and State taxes if unpaid September 15, and a penalty of the same amount added to School Taxes unpaid October 1. A five per cent. discount is allowed on Borough taxes if paid by October 1.

Visit Cliffs—Climb Peaks

Cliff dwellings in Mesa Verde National Park, Colorado, were among the interesting places visited by Mr. and Mrs. J. Bruce Byall and their two children in the course of a two-month summer tour of New Mexico and Colorado. They returned last week to their home, Bryn Mawr Avenue, Penn Valley, after going both ways by motor.

Miss Jean Byall attended a camp at Estes Park, where the family established its headquarters. Her brother Bruce spent much of his time at Ouray, also in Colorado. The Byalls climbed three mountains in the course of their sight-seeing: Long's Peak, Mt. Princeton and Mt. Evans—all over 14,000 feet high.

Are Ford Representatives

William J. Burgess, 242 Hampden Avenue, Narberth, is Narberth's new member of the sales organization of the Richardson-Fisher Company, Cynwyd, Ford dealers for this section, according to an announcement made this week. Another local member of the staff is Charles J. Haywood, 217 Wayne Avenue, Narberth, who has been associated with the Richards-Fisher Company since it was founded, three years ago.

Narberth Theatre Notes

The Narberth Theatre is showing on Friday and Saturday of this week, Marion Davies in her latest starring vehicle, "The Florodora Girl." The scenes are set away back in the "Gay Nineties" and furnish great enjoyment as one notices the evolution from then to now, the "Gayer Thirties," of clothes, transportation, ideas, opinions. In fact, everything has completely changed but love, and Miss Davies, assisted by Larry Gray, show that while it is the one factor credited for the rotation of the earth and the civilization thereon, it alone remains the one unchanging emotion down through the aeons. Miss Davies gives a highly capable performance as a dancing member of the original "Florodora Sexette."

JESS—IN FUN

When miniature tennis became the rage last winter, I began to think that other miniature things would be coming along. They called their little tennis game ping-pong, so named, according to Amos 'n' Andy, the leaders of modern American thought, after the great financier, ping-pong Morgan. But I knew that it was not ping-pong. It was miniature tennis, the forerunner of a great line of miniatures.

And then came miniature golf. It is a strange conception. Traditionally these United States have been a land of large things. Everything here has been bigger and better than in foreign lands. But now our golf courses, the smaller they are the prouder we are of them! Soon some entrepreneur will devise a golf course that can be set up upon your dining room table. And the day may not be far distant when those worthy gentlemen who scrawl the Lord's Prayer on the head of a pin may be devoting their time to the designing of small golf courses. Incidentally, I have never had very much sympathy for those who engrave words of wisdom and of light upon the head of a pin. I have always felt that the welfare of humanity would be just as completely served if they seated themselves upon the business end thereof.

But to get back to miniature golf again. Just the other day I heard a fair (with regard to her appearance and not to her ability on the links) miniature (with regard to the game and not with regard to her physical proportions) golfer (with much doubt) remark that she had made three holes in one. Now I have heard some pretty tall stories in my time, and I must confess to having told a few myself, but this is one story that I cannot digest. One hole in one is possible, though not probable. More than one hole in one is a mathematical impossibility. A hole in one is perfect. There is no superlative for perfect. If three holes can be done in one, then the eighteen will go for six. Six measly shots and the course is covered. To one of my extensive golfing ability (I don't know a mashie from a caddy, but don't tell anybody), six is a pretty good score for an eighteen-hole course.

And the tendency towards miniature things has not been limited to the sports world. Some industries have inclined towards the miniature wage, although this movement has not yet acquired any great degree of popularity among the workers. Andy Mellon, a Mellon, incidentally, which no melon-cutting corporation will ever attempt to cut, believes that the country will be very much pleased with miniature income taxes. He may find some supporters. Church attendance seems to have been miniature during the past summer. Miniature automobiles are all the rage. There's no telling where the movement will stop. I find that some of the shops along Chestnut Street are beginning to serve miniature sandwiches. And I fear that these miniature-mad moderns will be devising doughnuts the size of Life Savers (ha! ha! I did get a free ad in, Mr. Publisher.).

Grandmother's spacious kitchen is now a kitchenette, which means that no one of grandmother's size can even turn around in it. Families are miniature these days. Instead of a twelve-children model, the modern American family is a one-Pomeranian affair. No room for children in the family car these days. And meals are becoming miniature. Jasmine has aspirations towards a miniature waist-line. For supper we shall have a drop of orange juice and a shred or stick or stalk or whatever it is that a small portion of spinach is called. For breakfast, possibly a sweet smile and a nice, nourishing glass of cold water. We don't eat lunch any more. It is fattening to eat in the middle of the day. Mid-day eating is bad for your personal middle. Oh, we shall be a miniature family before long.

I have no sympathy whatever for the miniature trend. I yearn for the massive automobiles of yesterday with their rugged hoods and their sturdy wheels. Rough steeds they were, but they were faithful and everlasting. And the old kitchens where one with a cat-swinging complex could indulge his peculiar habit with perfect impunity. And golf-courses where the shortest hole was a par four and the rough deserved that appellation. Golf courses where people played in the Coming Events

During the latter part of this month the eyes of the sporting world will be focused on the Main Line when two events of national importance come to pass here.

Thousands of golfing enthusiasts will invade the section to watch Bobby Jones defend his U. S. amateur title on the Merion Cricket Club's course from the 22d to the 27th. Horse and dog lovers from all over the East will be on hand for the Bryn Mawr Horse Show, the 24th to the 27th.

With the schools and colleges opening this month, the fall sports calendar will be full to overflowing. Villanova and Haverford Colleges have fine football schedules arranged and, in addition, one has school football, hockey and soccer to choose from if seeking a sporting diversion.

All of which goes to prove that the Main Line is a good place to live with such healthful means of enjoyment and recreation at one's doorstep.

Political Prospects

The stage is now set for the November campaign in State and county. The expected verdict in favor of Gifford Pinchot as the Republican nominee for Governor makes it possible for citizens to make an intelligent selection between Attorney John M. Hemphill, indorsed by the liberal Republicans of the State and Democratic nominee, who stands on a platform calling for the repeal of the prohibition law and the return of liquor control to the States, and Gifford Pinchot, who has achieved all his prominence as an advocate of prohibition and who, in the event of his election as Governor for a second time, expects to go before the nation as a dry candidate for President. Had Mr. Pinchot been denied the Republican nomination for Governor it would be possible for him to go before the people as a political martyr, a role that would have been entirely to his liking. As the situation now stands there will be a clean-cut fight between two candidates who are as far apart as the two poles on the prohibition issue.

In view of the heavy vote polled by the wet candidates at the primaries on the Main Line, a large vote for Mr. Hemphill is anticipated.

Oyez! Oyez!

All ye that are interested in the annual outing of the men of the Presbyterian Church, hearken unto me. The aforesaid expedition will be held Saturday afternoon, September 27, 1930, and ye are further constrained to let nothing prevent your attendance at this gala-day affair, when ye will all proceed to Valley Forge, as is your usual wont, where ye can play a little baseball if ye are still a little young, or enjoy the old game of horseshoes if the muscles have become somewhat ancient, ending ye day with a jolly good dinner. Ye must take with ye our motto for the day—"Let all who join with us leave care behind."

daytime, and not under artificial light until four in the morning. But what's the use? Like every other temporary fad, the miniature madness will live its day and be soon forgotten.

Something a bit crazier will come along, if there is anything a bit crazier, and miniature golf will be ancient history. Possibly the newcomer will be tiddley-winks. I can't even spell its name, but it strikes me as being about on a par with miniature golf.

JESS A. LITTLEKISS.

Another Grievance

To the Editor of "Our Town":

Referring to the issue of "Our Town" dated September 5, I notice that you have devoted a great deal of space to "Grievances," which article makes it appear as though the children in our community are not being properly reared; however, you say nothing at all about DOGS—which have been instrumental in causing more damage to lawns, shrubbery and annoyance to the residents than children.

Next door to my home, Frederick Black, 217 Lantwyn Lane, keeps six (6) dogs in his cellar part of the time and permits them to run at will the greater part of the night and usually from 5:00 A. M. until the middle of the morning. If you can think of any worse annoyance than having a lot of howling dogs racing over your lawn barking and tearing things up in general at this hour of the morning it would enable you to make a comparison.

Very truly yours,
W. J. Scott.

"Contractors for repairing the curbs and sidewalks of those property owners who were either voluntarily or involuntarily in default on repair orders previously issued by this Committee, were given to Guy Croyle for the amount of $141.70, and to John Cannon for the amount of $153.15. All of this work was completed during August."

Needlework Guild to Meet Next Wednesday

The Needlework Guild of Narberth will hold its monthly meeting on Wednesday, September 17, from 10 A. M. to 4 P. M. at the home of Mrs. A. G. Follette, 222 Wayne Avenue.

All directors and friends are urged to attend. Lack of employment over a prolonged period of time will result in greatly increased calls on all relief organizations the coming winter. This fact and last year's splendid achievement should urge the Guild to most earnest endeavors. Three thousand two hundred and thirty-eight garments were collected in 1929 and distributed to thirty-seven charities.

Helen Louise Watts, a new director this year, has the distinction of being the fourth generation in the Narberth Branch of the Needlework Guild of America—her mother, grandmother and great grandmother are active directors in this branch.

EUGENE STAMAN

Eugene Staman, suburban salesman for Fred L. Lemont, grain dealers, 4522 Lancaster Avenue, Philadelphia, died suddenly of paralysis at the Samaritan Hospital on Wednesday at noon. Mr. Staman was well known on the Main Line. The funeral will be held at 2 P. M. tomorrow from his home, 3105 North Thirteenth Street, Philadelphia. Mr. Staman, who was 36 years of age, is survived by his wife, a daughter aged 5, and a son, 3 months old.

Back Home and Settled

Let one of your first duties be the renting of a safe deposit box for your valuable papers and things you would prefer not to lose.

Now that the youngsters are off to school, drop in and talk it over. The vaults of the Narberth National Bank are large and strong, and there are several size boxes to fit your needs.

And remember, the safe deposit facilities are light, airy and convenient. Courteous treatment, absolute safety, and no steps to climb.

By the way, now that vacation time is over, permit us to suggest that now is the best time to start preparing for your next vacation. Just start a separate savings account, deposit a small sum regularly, each week, and watch the total grow by the time your next vacation draws near!

Smoky Merion Fire Causes $5000 Damage

Blaze At Drinker Home on Saturday Confined to Cellar.

A fire of unknown origin, starting in the cellar of the home of H. S. Drinker, Jr., 249 Merion road, Merion, early last Saturday morning, caused $5000 damage.

The fire was discovered at 12:45 A. M. by Mrs. Michael Burning, who lives on the place, when smoke was seen issuing from the chimney. The Union Fire Company of Bala-Cynwyd answered the alarm and the Narberth and West Manayunk Companies responded to further alarms.

Several firemen of the various companies were overcome by smoke in battling the fire, which was confined to the basement of the house. "It was the smokiest fire on the Main Line in 26 years," said Chief Noel of the Narberth Company, in commenting on the blaze.

By dint of hard work of the firemen the blaze was confined entirely to the basement and most of the damage was caused by smoke. Only two one-and-one-half-inch water lines were used, which prevented further damage to the house from water.

Under the system used by the Township Fire Department, the Chief of the

Polo, 'Sea Bat' and 'Wild West' Coming to Egyptian

Lon Chaney, in his greatest and last characterization, may be seen and heard at the Egyptian Theatre this Friday and Saturday in "The Unholy Three"—a story of a midget, a giant and a ventriloquist, and their remarkable career in crime. It is one of the most thrilling films produced, and its plot is well-nigh perfect. Also on the week-end program are "Bear Shooters" an "Our Gang" comedy; a new "Silly Symphony," even funnier than its predecessors, and Graham McNamee newscasting the latest events.

Coming to Cynwyd's playhouse next Monday and Tuesday is a marine melodrama, "The Sea Bat," filmed by Wesley Ruggles on the southern coast of Mexico and in the Bahama Islands. The cast includes Raquel Torres, burly Charles Bickford and philosophic George Marion of "Anna Christie" fame, Nils Asther, John Miljan and Mack Swain. The story revolves around a fight under water between Nils Asther, a sponge diver, and an ocean mammal filmed for the first time. The sea bat is a giant ray, weighing several tons and with a wing spread on the ocean of ten feet or more.

"The Social Lion," coming to the Egyptian next Wednesday and Thursday, is a funny comedy in which a polo game figures prominently. In it Paramount made use of the Argentine Polo team. Jack Oakie and his pal, Skeets Gallagher, are starred in this adaptation of "Marco Himself"—an Octavus Roy Cohen comedy. The cast also includes Mary Brian, Olive Borden, Charles Sellon and Cyril Ring, and the director was A. Edward Sutherland, who directed the Hatton - Beery comedy successes.

Scheduled for Friday and Saturday of next week at the Egyptian is a rollicking cowboy comedy with William Haines at his funniest—"Way Out West." The new "talkie" is a hilarious fun-fest directed by Fred Niblo, in which Haines plays a circus barker who turns cowboy to encounter comical trials and tribulations. Leila Hyams plays the heroine, and Polly Moran, Francis X. Bushman, Jr., are in the cast—and Cliff Edwards, with his ukelele and a new song hit, "Singing a Song to the Stars."

Dedication of New Church Set For September 21st

A week of activity in the new church will follow. On Monday night, September 22, a community service will be held to which all the churches and community are invited. The music will be furnished by the organist and choir of All Saints' Episcopal Church, Wynnewood. On Tuesday evening, September 23, an inaugural recital will be given on the new organ by Ralph Kinder, assisted by Miss Ernestine B. Bacon, lyric soprano. On Wednesday evening, September 24, Dr. Robert C. Wills, Superintendent of the South District, Philadelphia Conference, will be the speaker. A fine inaugural banquet will be held on Thursday evening, September 25, in Parish Hall. The Hon. Fletcher Stites will be toastmaster. Dr. William H. Ford, Superintendent of the North-West District, Philadelphia Conference, and Dr. John G. Wilson will be the chief speakers. On Friday evening, September 26, "Former Pastor's Night" will be observed when all the former pastors who can do so will return.

A second eventful Sunday is planned for September 28, when Dr. Thomas H. Evans, former pastor and superintendent of the North District, will preach at 11 A. M. and the District Superintendent, Dr. W. Galloway Tyson, will preach at 7:45 P. M.

The Ministers' Wives of the Philadelphia Conference will hold their fall meeting and luncheon on Tuesday, September 30, beginning at 11 A. M. In the evening the Sunshine Bible Class will open up their fall activities in the church parlor at 8 o'clock.

Sunday, October 5, will witness the first baptism in the new church. This honor is reserved for the infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Purring. New members will be received and Holy Communion administered. At the evening service the pastor will preach his first sermon in the new edifice and bring the special dedicatory program to a close. All these services are open to the public and it is hoped many will attend those which do not conflict with services in their own churches. After each service an opportunity will be afforded for the inspection of the building.

In the summer of 1884 Samuel B. Tibben appealed to the Board of Home Missions and Church Extension to organize a Methodist Church in Lower Merion. As a result a Sunday School was formed and preaching services instituted. On October 15 of that year Matthew J. Edwards organized the first class meeting and was appointed its leader. The first board of trustees was elected and organized November 12, 1884, consisting of William A. Fisher, president; Samuel F. Tibben, secretary; Samuel B. Tibben, treasurer; George W. Fisher, Frederick Bicking, Matthew J. Edwards and George G. Holliday. The church was known as Beth Raffin Methodist Episcopal Church. The first church was a frame structure located on State Road, north of the present Borough of Narberth.

In the summer of 1892 the location on the southwest corner of Price and Essex Avenues, Narberth, was secured for the erection of a new church. The inspiration of this movement was a small bequest by Miss Mary F. Thompson. The following October the erection of a stone edifice was begun. When nearly completed it was destroyed by fire December 14, 1893. By no means discouraged by this calamity the officary at once began planning for the rebuilding of the edifice and on September 15, 1895, the present building was dedicated, free from debt, by Bishops Foss and Andrews. The Rev. Thomas H. Evans, now superintendent of the North District of the Philadelphia Conference, was the pastor in charge at the time of dedication. He was followed by the Rev. H. W. Millison, Rev. W. Gray Jones, Rev. E. F. Randolph and Rev. William B. Wood in the order named.

In 1906 under the leadership of Dr. Wood the present substantial parsonage was erected and furnished.

are Rev. James M. Shelly, Rev. Jacob P. Miller, Rev. George W. Dungan, Rev. Christian G. Koppel, Rev. Frank M. Gray, Rev. Arthur S. Walls and Rev. W. Sheridan Dawson. Substantial progress was made under the pastorates of Drs. Koppel and Gray and was maintained by their successors. Under the pastorate of Dr. Dawson plans were laid for a more commodious place of worship and a financial campaign carried through securing subscriptions in the amount of $51,000 for this purpose. Negotiations were started for the securing of the Barrie property across the street and were almost completed when he was transferred to another church. Under his pastorate the first plans were drawn for the new church and Alexander Mackie Adams chosen as architect.

In March, 1928, the Rev. Samuel MacAdams was appointed pastor. He was at once informed that the chief item in the church program was the erection of the proposed new building. He began a close study of the plans and the site, and in conjunction with the committee the final plans were adopted, additional subscriptions secured, and preparations completed for the breaking of ground the following year. Ground was broken for the new church on Sunday, June 9, 1929, and the cornerstone laid on Sunday, October 6, by the Rev. W. E. P. Haas, District Superintendent.

The contract for the new building was awarded to Frank G. English & Sons, of Philadelphia, who was the lowest bidder of the fourteen builders who submitted estimates. That the committee made a wise choice is evidenced in the handsome structure which now graces the southeast corner of Price and Essex Avenues, Narberth. Especial commendation is due Felix Cantono and his fine corps of stone masons for the excellency of workmanship which the exterior displays.

Several fine memorial windows enrich the interior of the church itself and a magnificent three manual organ fills the whole edifice with melodious harmonies.

One of the most interesting features of the building is the church parlor with its attractive fireplace in a setting of Old English panels. But surpassing everything else, from the community standpoint, is Parish Hall with its stage, side galleries and splendidly equipped kitchen. Here the recreational, educational and social needs of the church and community are splendidly met. Unique among the many attractions of the new building is the east ramp with its graceful arch surmounted by an inviting entrance.

Many are meditating and chuckling with the author of the column that you'll find on the editorial page.

Play-by-Play Description of Narberth-Bryn Mawr Game

By John Uberti.

FIRST INNING

Curwin grounded out to Burke, who stepped away from the base to make the retrieve and relay the ball to Pitcher Stevens. M. Heckle raised a short fly to third base and Humphries fanned. No runs.

Graham was wild at the start and struck Francis with a wide heave. Brice flied to Curwin and Gazella walked. Morgan skied to Thomas in left-field, and so did Burke. No runs.

SECOND INNING

Harris caromed a hard drive towards second, but which gradually gained momentum and soared out towards the right-field ramparts and W. Heckle bunted for a hit. Gilfillan popped up to the guardian of the torrid corner and Thomas loaded the bases by singling to centre. Stevens unleashed a wild throw that struck Young, forcing Harris over the plate. Fish's blunder admitted Graham to first and W. Heckle came home, but on Curwin's drive to centre, which was intercepted by a running catch by Morgan, Young was doubled on the return throw. Two runs.

Burke struck out. Webb rolled out to W. Heckle, who ousted him at first, and Fish singled to right-field. On Bradley's bid for a hit, W. Heckle forced Fish at the keystone. No runs.

THIRD INNING

Heckle clouted his first homer of the game. Humphries singled to centre, but was forced by Harris at second, who a moment later was also run down at the keystone. W. Heckle hit to second base and was out. One run.

Gilfillan forced Stevens unassisted. Francis popped out to Heckle and W. Heckle relayed his grounder to first for a force-out of Brice. No runs.

FOURTH INNING

Gazella threw out Gilfillan and Thomas singled to right. Morgan perched beneath Young's aerial swipe and Graham hit to Bradley for the third out. No runs.

Gazella and Morgan both walked and Gazella moved up on Burke's sacrifice fly to right-field. Webb lifted an aerial to the second-baseman and Gazella scored while the guardians of the infield were tossing Morgan back and forth. W. Heckle unleashing a poor assist to second base that resulted in the scoring of the run. W. Heckle ran in for Fish's comber, forcing him at the initial hassock. One run.

FIFTH INNING

Burke retrieved Pitcher Stevens' relay to force Curwin, but Heckle stroled. Humphries dispatched a two-bagger to Windsor Avenue in left wing and on Harris' sacrificial rap to Francis, Heckle counted. W. Heckle flied out to Gazella. One run.

Bradley raised a fly to Heckle in centre-field and Stevens fanned. Humphries' inaccurate assist gave Francis access to first and Brice grounded out to Harris. No runs.

SIXTH INNING

Gilfillan ambled. Thomas tapped an infield bingle and Young reached first when Fish failed to force Gilly at third by a poor throw. Three-base-hit Reynolds clouted his customary triple that emptied the bases. Curwin raised a feeble fly to third, but Heckle came through with his second homer of the contest to score Billy. Exit Stevens, enter Lyons. Humphries greeted Nicky with a single to port and on Bradley's blunder Harris gained a base. W. Heckle lofted to right-field, and Thomas was thrown out. Six runs.

W. Heckle scooped up consecutive drives by Gazella and Morgan for a pair of retirements and Burke struck out. No runs.

SEVENTH INNING

Young hit to Fish and was out. Martin blanked batting for Reynolds as did Kearney for the third out. No runs.

Harris went to third base for Humphries and executed two assists that resulted in the ousting of Webb and Fish. Kearney was playing at short for W. Heckle and was charged with the error that admitted Bradley to first. Lyons surrendered on strikes flung by Charley Townsend, who relieved Reynolds in the seventh. No runs.

EIGHTH INNING

Heckle and Mulligan singled, but Harris saw his deep drive intercepted by Morgan in centre-field. Townsend skied to Bradley. Gilfillan stroled to load the bases and, in issuing a second ticket to Yowell, batting for Thomas, a run was automatically carried over by Heckle. Burns relieved Young behind the plate and worked Lyons for a third consecutive pass to force in Mulligan. Martin went in to hit for Reynolds and forced Burns at second. Two runs.

Stevens appeared as an outfielder and singled to short and Brice laced a more solid nick to centre. Gazella struck out and on Kearney's second blunder of Morgan's roller Stevens scored. Townsend fanned Burke, and Webb popped up to Mulligan playing in lieu of W. Heckle. One run.

NINTH INNING

Kearney laid down a hit to Fish, but was beaten to first by inches. Heckle clouted his third homeric swat of the contest and Mulligan followed by walking. Mike moved up on Harris' sacrifice hit. Gazella to Burke. Townsend struck out. One run.

One down, Lyons singled to start the finale. Stevens struck out, but Brice walked. Heckle ran in for Gazella's fly to jilt the side of further scoring. No runs.

Bryn Mawr Swamped by Narberth, 13 to 2

Three Homers by Borough's Centrefielder Account For Four Runs.

By John Uberti.

Narberth adjusted its batting eye last Saturday afternoon preparatory to the coming championship series at the expense of Bryn Mawr, which club found itself on the short end of a 13-2 score.

The borough ball club added another record to its long list of achievements by equaling the individual home-run hitting for one game. Merrill Heckle, Narberth's brilliant outfielder, had the 1200 onlookers spellbound, viewing a spectacle which they had never before seen on the Narberth field or by any other team in the Main Line League. These trio of robust swats accounted for four of the thirteen runs scored in comparison with two tainted tallies by Bryn Mawr, both being scored by the aid of blunders.

Two of these homeric swipes came with the bases empty while one pushed in a pal who was resting on third base.

The sixth inning was the period that found Narberth's lead safe and sound when they added six more tallies to the four runs procured during the previous sessions. The main ingredients that went to make this inning the farce that it was were the hefty hitting tactics of Heckle and Bill Reynolds. Three boroughites were prancing on the sacks in their eagerness to coin a run. None were out when Bill (Three-Base) Reynolds came to bat and caromed a violent crack headed for the highway in centre-field to empty the saturated bags while he came to rest on the hot-box. Merrill Heckle then bettered this potent swipe by crashing his second round-trip blow to Windsor Avenue, sending in Reynolds ahead of him. In this inning the Narberth line-up batted around, troubling two pitchers for the sum of five hits.

Following Heckle's second homeric hit, Stevens, the starting moundsman, yielded his services to Nick Lyons, who during his three and one-half innings of play dealt the champions three hits, which augmented the lead by two runs.

Manager "Gene" Davis was in a vindictive mood for this engagement in view of Bryn Mawr's fortunate victory last month when by a hurried attack in the final chapters of the game they managed to beat the champions to the wire. Mr. Davis used Knute Rockne's system of combat for this game by withdrawing the first team after they had fully demonstrated their superiority to the Bryn Mawr Club and sending afield team number two.

The Narberth champions pounded the offerings of two hurlers, after Heckle had sent Stevens to the club house by rapping his second homer of the game in the sixth stanza. Three borough pitchers teased the alien batsmen with their cunning heaves. Howard Graham heaved for four innings, allowing the visitors one hit during his stay. Bill Reynolds, whom Bryn Mawr defeated in the previous game, went in for vengeance and held the foemen in check without dealing them a single bingle and in the seventh Charley Townsend relieved Reynolds. In the three innings in which he served, Townsend was forced to distribute three hits, one of which combined with an error resulted in the scoring of the second alien run of the engagement.

Graham fanned one man, Reynolds felled two and Charley struck out five as Graham was credited with the victory, his tenth of the season.

The victory gave Narberth their eighth of the year in league debuts out of eighteen games played and their second out of nine played during the second half.

Besides the potent batting of Heckle and Reynolds, who contributed ten of the thirteen runs, Thomas was a starring feature with the hickory by batting for an average of 1.000, while W.

Heckle, weak at bat, played splendidly at shortstop, where he accepted seven out of eight chances.

In this football score against Bryn Mawr, the champions assembled fifteen hits against four of the visiting team.

LATEST CAR CLEANING METHODS

SPARKLING describes your car after a washing and polishing job here. Plenty of daylight and trained handling result in work of even brilliance.

CLEANING a car isn't a terribly complicated job. But there are right and wrong ways of doing it. Anyone who has found smudges after a polishing, or dirt on the wheels after a wash, knows exactly what we mean.

That's why we're glad to have you decide, yourself, whether your car has been properly cleaned at our station.

But, frankly, we don't feel we are running much risk. To begin with, our station is fitted with the latest washing equipment. Our washer knows his business. There's plenty of daylight in the washing room. Generous hosing and soft chamois cloths remove every trace of hard road-going.

Won't you take us up on this offer? We're anxious for you to know us since we have moved into your neighborhood, and this would be a fine way to get acquainted . . . to learn about the facilities we have for lubrication work and tightening service.

Pressure lubrication, forcing out old gritty grease and worn, dirty oil, is also part of keeping a car clean.

And you ought to try the newest . . . Mobilgas. It's modernized for your modern motor by Vacuum's process of distillation.

VITAL SERVICE

These services increase your driving pleasure and your car's trade-in value

Greasing. Done in roomy, lighted pits by trained men equipped with the latest tools. Parts exposed during work protected by fitted covers. Eight different greases especially refined for specific types of duty and applied according to charts authorized by motor car builders.

Washing. Modern pressure equipment used by trained men working in glass enclosed, drained and daylighted wash racks. Hydraulic jacks raise cars to convenient levels for under-gear washing.

Polishing. Soft chamois, proper cloths and complete stocks of cleaners and polishes. Daylighted and closed rooms insure against dry polish missed through reflection of artificial light.

Tightening. Thoroughly trained men with special tools working from authorized charts remove all the annoying squeaks and rattles that worry the driver and deteriorate the car.
